David and Goliath

When King David was a kid, watching sheep was what he did
And he did it very well everyday
He kept the sheep safe and sound when the lions were around
And he kept the wolves at bay
And then along came a day all the people were afraid
Of the Philistine army coming 'round
They had a giant on their team - very hairy, very mean
And every day he called them out

He said you're weak and you're chicken and you're scared - bawk bawk
And for the next 40 days he dared
Every day he would call for the best
But nobody thought they were up to the test
Cause he was bigger than the biggest
And taller than the tallest
And badder than the baddest of them all
He was rougher than the roughest
And tougher than the toughest
But David had a friend in God

Who told him
Get a rock, take a shot
Think you're little, but you're not
I'll help you do what you have to do
You're a whole lot bigger 'cause you're mine
Now get ready, aim and let it fly
One rock, one shot
One giant's gonna drop
You can take him down if you have to

So David volunteered - and it seemed a little weird
He was little after all - kinda small
But with God on his side - he paid no nevermind
To the giant who was super super tall
Cause God is tougher than the toughest
And buffer than the buffest
And better than the best of them all
So with a stone in his slingshot
David hit the right spot
And BOOM - the giant went down

He was the little guy but God was on his side and so he knew he'd be okay -
OK

He knew Goliath was a giant opposition but he took him down anyway
With God you've got to remember /So remember
Nothing high, nothing wide, nothing any shape or size can stop him
Nothing big, nothing tall, nothing any size at all can keep him down

He's a whole lot bigger than your mind/a giant
So now it's ready, aim and let it fly
One rock, one shot
One giant's gonna drop
All you ever have to do is ask him
